Lenten Regulations.

In all the churches in the diocese the Lenten regulations for the year 1907 were read last Sunday at the order of Bishop Maiz. They are substantially the same rules formulated year after year and are as follows:
All the faithful who have completed their twenty-first year, unless legitimately dispensed, bound to observe the fast of Lent.
All days of Lent, Sundays excepted, are fast days of obligation, on which only one full meal is permitted.
Dispensation from the fast is allowed at the principal meal on all days of Lent, except Wednesday, Friday, the Ember Saturday and Holy Saturday.
The use of fish with flesh meat is forbidden at the same meal, even on Sundays in Lent.
Custom sanctions the taking of a cup of coffee, tea or chocolate in the morning, and in the evening, a collation which should not exceed the fourth part of an ordinary meal. At this collation meat only is forbidden, the use of butter, cheese, milk and eggs being allowed in virtue of a special indulgence of the Holy See.
The use of lard and dripping is permitted in the preparation of abstinent food.
When the principal meal cannot be taken at midday, it may be taken in the evening, and the collation in the morning.
All persons under twenty-one years, or over sixty years of age, those who are engaged in hard labor, the sick and convalescent, and those who cannot fast without injury to their health, are exempt from the obligation of fasting. Those who have any reasonable doubt, as to the obligation to fast or abstain, should consult their confessor.
Those who are not bound to fast may use flesh meat more than once each day on which the fast is permitted.
The time for fulfilling the duty of Easter communion extends, in this diocese, from the first Sunday in Lent to Trinity Sunday.
The Rev. Rectors are requested to have special Lenten devotions in their churches.
In virtue of powers granted us by the Holy See, on March 13, 1883, and renewed for ten years, remain for ten years more, we permit workmen and their families the use of flesh meat, once a day, on all the fast days, with the exception of all Fridays, Ash Wednesday, the Wednesday and Saturday of Holy Week and the eve of Christmas. Those who avail themselves of this dispensation are not allowed to eat fish and flesh at the same meal, and they are exhorted to perform some other act of mortification, such as abstaining from all intoxicating beverages.

Social and Personal.

The wedding of Miss Ella Kennedy and Mr. C. A. Conway is announced to take place immediately after Easter.
Mr. and Mrs. William Ford of St. Francis de Sales parish, are the happy parents of a little boy born during the week.
Mrs. Norman Traver of Sacred Heart parish, who has been very ill of nervous disorder, has recovered sufficiently to be able to travel and has gone east, where it is hoped the restoration of her health will be complete.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwartz are "grippe" sufferers.
Mrs. Edward G. Straub of 1732 High street, who has been very ill for some weeks with pneumonia, is still in a serious condition.
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ruby are visiting friends in Denver on their way to Idaho. Mrs. Ruby is well remembered here as Mrs. Agnes O'Hearn of 2116 Grant avenue. She took an active interest in all church affairs and was a member of many Catholic societies. Last fall she went to Los Angeles to spend the winter, and her friends were surprised a short time since at the news of her coming to Mr. Ruby, a banker of Lebanon, Mo. After spending the honeymoon in California, Mrs. Ruby is now on the way to her new home, where the wishes of hosts of friends go with her.

Mrs. Perry, a prominent member of St. Francis de Sales parish, is ill at St. Joseph's hospital.
Miss Lena Inman, a popular nurse at St. Joseph's hospital, was injured last week by a runaway car. Just as Miss Inman was boarding the car at Lawrence and Sixteenth streets, it started, dragging her for more than a half block, striking her back and right wrist very badly. Only by maintaining a firm hold was she saved from being thrown under the wheels.

Rev. Louis F. Hagus of Colorado Springs came last Sunday to pay his respects to his mother on the occasion of her birthday. Mrs. Hagus is just recovering from a severe attack of grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Powers of Leadville are spending their honeymoon in Denver.

Rev. Father Dubois of Comor formerly of the cathedral parish, was in Denver for a few days during the week.
The pupils of the high school department of St. Mary's academy on California street entertained their parents and friends at a musicale Thursday afternoon at 8 o'clock. The program consisted of piano and violin selections and vocal music, was very well carried out. The following young women participated: Misses Verna Keefe, Mary Egan, Edith McLaughlin, May Lynch, Evelyn Lynch, Josie Ryan, Annie Ryan, Grace Drumming, McAnnam, Kate Keenehan, Lavina Stone, Tessie Floyd, Beatrice O'Neil, Mary Baugh, Helen Young, Helen Burton, Lillian Chaney and Helen Rieley. The winter term opened Feb. 1 under favorable circumstances.

Mr. Michael Lewis, who had been a resident of Denver since 1878, died on Tuesday, Feb. 5, of paralysis, at his home, 2443 Arapahoe street. Mr. Lewis was born in Dublin sixty years ago, and at one time was a member of the Dublin contributory, famous for the physique and bravery of its men. After coming to Colorado he engaged in railroading, and was superintendent of construction of the old South Park road through Platte canyon. Some time after he opened a grocery, which he conducted up to the time of his death. Lewis was one of the best known Catholics in the city, and was president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, a position he had held for some years; or, rather, of the Daughters of Erin, and president of the Catholic Mutual Benefit association. His funeral, which was held Friday morning, Feb. 8, was a large one, being held in the city. Sacred Heart church being taxed to its capacity. Requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Swift, S. J. The funeral was under the auspices of the A. O. H. and C. M. R. A., but numerous other societies sent large delegations. The pall-bearers were Messrs. James Devaney, Michael J. Waldron, Richard Quinlan, and J. J. Sullivan. Interment was in Mount Calvary cemetery.

Mrs. Lewis is survived by a widow and four grown daughters, all of whom reside in Denver.

Mrs. Margaret E. Jacques, formerly Miss Margaret E. Johnson, died at her home, 67 Cass court, on Tuesday, Feb. 5, and was buried Thursday morning with requiem mass at St. Leo's church. Interment in Mount Olivet cemetery.

Mrs. Margaret R. Curran of 1031 South Fifteenth street, died at her home on Tuesday morning, Feb. 5. Mrs. Curran was a native of Ireland, and though away from it for fifty years, cherished the traditions of the Emerald Isle and loved to relate to her inimitable style stories of her childhood spent there. She was a most estimable lady, and dearly beloved by all who knew her.

Mrs. Curran was the mother of five children, all prominent in the business and social life of Denver. One son, James A. Curran, is president of the Curran Billposting company, one of the most enterprising concerns in the west. The other sons are Charles E. and John H., and her daughters are

The Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Leo's church gave a dance for the benefit of the organ fund Friday evening, Feb. 8, in the school hall of St. Leo's. All present spent a most enjoyable evening.

The Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Patrick's parish entertained their friends Tuesday evening, Feb. 5, at a dance and card party which was one of the very delightful pre-Lenten affairs. It was in the nature of a vaudeville party, and the decorations and party cards were in hearts. The young ladies having in charge are to be congratulated upon the success of the occasion.

Last Sunday evening the retreat given by Rev. H. L. McManamin for the young women of the parish closed with a beautiful service at Logan avenue chapel. At the conclusion of the vespers about fifty young ladies clad in snowy white and wearing wreaths of ruyah approached the altar and spoke the vows which made them Children of Mary. Father McManamin then delivered the final sermon of his series, taking for his subject the words, "Choose ye first the kingdom of God and his justice and all else shall be added unto you."

On Monday evening, Feb. 18, a retreat will commence for the men and boys of the parish, and it is hoped they will avail themselves of the graces offered as did the women during their retreat. The opening sermon will be delivered by Rev. Edward Barry, S. J., at the conclusion of which Father Barry will deliver a series of sermons. Other well known pupil orators will deliver instructions during the week.

In response to an appeal in behalf of the Indian and negro missions, read in all churches of the diocese last Sunday, a portion of next Sunday's collection will be set aside for that worthy cause.

Miss Josephine Metcalf, daughter of Mrs. M. J. Metcalf of 1552 South Tremont street, died at St. Joseph's hospital on Saturday, Feb. 9, and was buried Tuesday morning from St. Leo's church. Rev. William O'Riyan said requiem mass. Interment was in Mount Olivet cemetery.

John Thumman of 4257 Raleigh street died at his home on Friday, Feb. 8, and was buried Sunday morning at St. Leo's church. Rev. William O'Riyan said requiem mass. Interment was in Mount Olivet cemetery.

Arthur Conley, son of Mrs. Margaret Conley, died on Tuesday, Feb. 5, at Goldenfield, Nev., after a four days' illness of pneumonia. News of his death came as a great shock to his relatives and friends, as he was a young man of robust constitution, and always in perfect health. Mr. Conley was years of age, and resided in Colorado, principally in Anaconda, until two years ago, when the family removed to Goldenfield. The body was brought to Denver by a special train, and was buried at his home, 1375 Marston street. Requiem mass was said at 9:30 o'clock by Rev. M. W. Donovan at Logan avenue chapel. Burial was in Mount Olivet cemetery beside the grave of his father, who died less than three years ago. Arthur Conley was a young man of great promise, and his death was a great loss to his family and to the community.
